Office: (330) 523-6580

Lamplighter's Broadway Bootcamp 103 A theater workshop for children 8-18

Who are the Revere Lamplighters Youth Performance Guild?

The mission of the Revere Lamplighters Youth Performance Guild – The Lamplighters for short – is to serve as an educational organization for theater arts that establishes and advances standards of excellence in youth performance and encourages an active interest in theater arts beginning from school age children through young adulthood. We will achieve this by providing outstanding theater workshops, performances and community engagement through participation in local, state or national events.

The Lamplighters are led by Artistic Director Kelly Elliott Clark. Our workshops and performance-based workshops promise to teach your children basic acting techniques through theater games, short skits and full length shows that are enjoyable. Actors will be able to use their body, voice and imagination while creating fun characters, reading monologues and acting them out! No experience required!

Lamplighter's Broadway Bootcamp 103

The goal of The Lamplighter's Broadway BootCamp 103 is to provide children ages 8 through 18 with specific tools to help them develop and grow in musical theatre. Each session works towards building a foundation that will help young actors be successful onstage. Young performers can accomplish this as they work through each activity. These activities focus on exploring and discovering the skills necessary to be a great musical theatre actor (singing, dancing, acting). At the end of Bootcamp, students will have a chance to join the Summer Performance Workshop and integrate those skills. We know your children will enjoy these activities while introducing (or even if they are familiar with) them to the world of musical theatre!
